McIntyre Meets with County Commissioners on Capitol Hill

Washington, D.C. - Inside the U.S. Capitol this morning, U.S. Representative Mike McIntyre hosted breakfast and meet with county commissioners from all across Southeastern North Carolina to discuss issues ranging from jobs to transportation to Medicaid funding to education.

Congressman McIntyre stated, "Our county commissioners are on the front lines every day serving the citizens of our area, and it was a real honor to meet with them on issues of mutual concern. I appreciate the work that they do, and thank them for taking the time to come up to Washington."

The North Carolina Association of County Commissioners were visiting Washington for the National Association of Counties' Legislative Conference. This is the 8th year in a row that Congressman McIntyre has hosted the commissioners.

Cumberland County Commissioners and other officials in attendance were Jeanette M. Council, Chair, John Henley, Vice Chair, Breeden Blackwell, Kenneth Edge, Billy King, Ed Melvin, James Martin, County Manager and Juanita Pilgrim, Deputy County Manager.
