JOB-HUNTERS SOUGHT FOR 'FALL INTO WORK' EMPLOYMENT FAIR

FAYETTEVILLE – More than 60 employers will be represented at the community “Fall Into Work” Job Fair on Thursday, September 28. They’ll be looking for people who can fill employment openings in a variety of fields, including government, distribution, food service, hospitality, child care and customer service, among others. The Fair will be held at the Cumberland County DSS building at 1225 Ramsey Street.

The Fair is free and open to the public. Anyone who is seeking employment should plan to attend the Job Fair, scheduled from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on September 28 at the DSS building. Job seekers are encouraged to be dressed appropriately and to bring resumes and pens with them.

The “Fall Into Work” Job Fair is a partnership among the Cumberland County DSS Work First Program, Cumberland County Business Council, Fayetteville Technical Community College, the City of Fayetteville Community Development Department, and Beasley Broadcast Group, Inc. Business sponsors include PaPa John’s Pizza, Pizza Hut, Domino’s Pizza and Krispy Kreme Doughnuts.

For more information about the Fair, call Bill Kiser at 677-2177 or Robert Relyea at 677-2222.
