

5 September 2008

MEDIA ADVISORY

Correction and update #2

FAYETTEVILLE – The special needs shelter in Cumberland County opening at 7 pm this evening is Smith Recreation Center located at 1520 Slater Avenue. This shelter is being made available to those with special medical or physical disability needs, and a caretaker must accompany the person who has special needs. (The other two shelters are at Mac Williams Middle School, Clinton Road and SouthView High School, Elk Road.)

The Cumberland County Animal Control Facility will be closed tomorrow, Saturday, September 6, for adoptions and animal intake. (Shelter attendants will be caring for the animals.) Emergencies involving aggressive animals or injured animals should be reported to the Sheriff's Dispatcher at 323-1500.

###