Billy R. King Elected to NACo Board of Directors

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. — Commissioner Billy R. King was elected to the National Association of Counties (NACo) Board of Directors on July 20 during the association's Annual Conference in Washoe County, Nev. King, chairman of the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners, has served on the NACo board since 2007.

Members of the NACo Board of Directors manage the business and property of the association; determine NACo's mission as identified by the members; monitor NACo's success in fulfilling its mission, and ensure that NACo continues to fulfill its mission.

"I am pleased to have been elected by NACo members to serve on the association's Board of Directors," King said. "NACo is the only national organization which represents the interests of county government, and I look forward to doing my part in ensuring that the voice of America's counties is heard loud and clear in Washington, D.C."
