Register of Deeds Schedules Aug. 24 Press Conference To Demonstrate E-Recording Service

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Register of Deeds Office invites the media to a press conference on Aug. 24 at 11 a.m. to learn about the department's new electronic recording service. The conference will take place in the office's Deed Vault, located in Room 114 of the Cumberland County Courthouse.

The media will see a live demonstration of the electronic recording service, which will allow deeds, deeds of trust, and other legal documents to be transferred, received and recorded electronically. With this new service, Cumberland County will accept virtually all individual document types, as well as packages of multiple documents. The office is partnering with Simplifile and Greensboro-based Logan Systems on the project.

A reception in Room 119 of the Courthouse will follow the demonstration of this new and innovative approach to receiving and recording digital documents.
