Storm Shelter at Westover Recreation Center to Close Wednesday at 5 p.m.
(Fayetteville, N.C. April 26, 2011)

The emergency shelter for storm victims at the Westover Recreation Center will close Wednesday, April 27, at 5 p.m. It is the last storm shelter to close.

“I want to thank the Red Cross, Department of Social Services, Public Health and Parks and Recreation for the great job they did in running the shelter and being there for the individuals and families affected by the storm,” said Kenny Currie, Cumberland County Emergency Services Director.

The shelter was one of four that opened the night the tornadoes struck on April 16. At one point, more than 80 people stayed at the shelter.
