Employers Invited to Oct. 12 Job Fair

FAYETTEVILLE – Employers are invited to participate in an upcoming job fair on Oct. 12 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Crown Expo Center, 1960 Coliseum Dr.

The Cumberland County Department of Social Services Work First Program is partnering with Fayetteville Technical Community College, City of Fayetteville Community Development, Beasley Broadcast Group, and the Fayetteville-Cumberland County Chamber of Commerce to present the 13th Annual “Fall Into Work” Job Fair, which is free and open to the public. The business sponsors are Boddie-Noell (Hardee’s) and Fayetteville Public Works Commission.

The event provides a great opportunity for employers to find new employees as well as advertise their businesses. Last year’s job fair featured about 100 business vendors and drew a crowd of more than 4,500 job seekers.

The booth space is free and equipped with wireless Internet access. Electrical access for the space is available for a $25 fee by contacting the Crown Expo business office at 438-4107.

For more information and to sign up for a table, call Robert Relyea at 677-2222 or Bill Kiser at 677-2177. Please respond by or before Sept. 30 as space will fill up quickly.
