County Clerk Marie Colgan to Retire July 1

FAYETTEVILLE – County Clerk Marie Colgan informed County Commissioners today of her intention to retire July 1.

“I have thoroughly enjoyed the time I’ve worked for each of you, both as your Deputy Clerk and as your Clerk. However, after working for 40 years, I have made the decision to retire so I will be able to spend more time with my family and to be able to travel with my spouse,” Colgan said in a letter to the board.

Colgan has worked for Cumberland County Government for a total of 14 years. She became the County Clerk in June 2009, after serving three years as the Deputy Clerk.

“Marie Colgan has been a great employee for Cumberland County, and we will miss her services as our County Clerk,” said Chairman Kenneth Edge.
