Day Reporting Center to Host Feb. 16 Open House

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Day Reporting Center is holding an open house on Wednesday, Feb. 16 from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. for local judges, district attorneys, public defenders, private attorneys, probation officers and members of the public interested in learning more about the program and what the center offers the community.

The Day Reporting Center provides various programs including GED and parenting classes, anger and stress management relief, cognitive behavioral intervention, transportation assistance, and art and recreation therapy.

A short presentation will highlight the importance of the Day Reporting Center to Cumberland County and its role in helping offenders make positive changes in their lives.

The Cumberland County Day Reporting Center provides the court system with a one-stop community punishment center for offenders sentenced under Structured Sentencing. It serves as an alternative to incarceration by assisting in controlling and managing offenders within the community.

The Day Reporting Center is located at 412 W. Russell St., Fayetteville. For more information, please call 323-6126.
