Community Development to Hold Public Meetings on Housing Assistance

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Community Development Department is holding public meetings in February to help residents with home buying assistance, low-interest loans, and housing rehabilitation programs.

The public is invited to learn firsthand about the various programs, upcoming projects and community activities offered through Community Development. These meetings also give citizens a chance to provide feedback on community needs.

“I cannot stress enough the importance of these community meetings. We need to hear from the citizens we serve,” said Community Development Director Thanena Wilson. “At a time when resources are very limited, we want to be sure that we are providing services and programs to meet the most critical needs in our community.”

The meetings are scheduled to take place at the following locations:

- Feb. 7 at Hope Mills Recreation Center, 5766 Rockfish Road, at 6 p.m.
- Feb. 21 at Eastover Central Recreation Center, 3637 Pembroke Lane, at 6 p.m.
- Feb. 24 at Spring Lake Community Center, 245 Ruth Street, at 6:30 p.m.

Funding for these programs is provided by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).
