Citizens Encouraged to Apply for County Boards, Committees

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. – Cumberland County has 38 appointed citizen advisory boards and committees to aid the Board of County Commissioners in governing effectively. Citizens who are interested in serving on those boards and participating in governmental decisions are encouraged to apply for appointment.

You must be a resident of Cumberland County to apply. Applications are available on the county's website and by contacting the Deputy Clerk to the Board of Commissioners. Applications are accepted throughout the year.

Some boards and commissions meet during the day, so please check the meeting schedule for the particular board on which you are interested in serving before applying. Some boards and commissions may have specific categories of memberships.

To learn more about Cumberland County's appointed boards and commissions, call 678-7772 or visit the county's website at www.co.cumberland.nc.us.
