County Now Offers Online Job Application Process

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. – Individuals seeking employment with Cumberland County government will find the process easier and less time consuming with a new online job application process.

In the past, applications had to be mailed or dropped off to the Human Resources office in the Cumberland County Courthouse.

“We are extremely excited about our new online paperless process because of the time savings and convenience it offers our perspective applicants and the County,” said Assistant HR Director Julean Self.

Today’s launch of the new online application process meets one of the County’s strategic objectives of enhancing communications systems.

The application, along with a listing of County job vacancies, is available online at <http://www.co.cumberland.nc.us/jobs>.
