Coordinating Book Clubs Made Simple

Library's New Book Club Survival Kits are convenient and easy to check out

It's easier than ever to start a book club or coordinate your club's next meeting with the Cumberland County Public Library & Information Center's new Book Club Survival Kits.

Book club coordinators may check out these kits, which come in an attractive bag with 10 copies of your chosen book, a sign-out sheet to track who has the books, and a list of questions and reviews to help get the discussion going. Also included is information about the author, and read-alikes for both the book and the author.

The Book Club Survival Kits are made possible by funding from the Friends of the Library and check out for up to eight weeks. They may be reserved in advance by calling 483-7727 ext. 250.

The following titles are available in Book Club Survival Kits: The 19th Wife by David Ebershoff; Adam & Eve by Sena Jeter Naslund; Anthem by Ayn Rand; Cleopatra: A Life by Stacy Schiff; The Color of Water by James McBride; The Cookbook Collector by Allegra Goodman; Cutting for Stone by Abraham Verghese; The Girl Who Fell From the Sky by Heidi Durrow; Half-Broke Horses by Jeannette Walls; The Handmaid's Tale by Margaret Atwood; The Peach Keeper by Sarah Addison Allen; Snow Flower and the Secret Fan by Lisa See; The Tiger's Wife by Tea Obreht; and The Traitor's Wife by Kathleen Kent.

To find a book club to join, visit www.cumberland.lib.nc.us for the times, locations and chosen titles through our online calendar of events. You may also pick up a calendar of events at any library location.

For more information about this or other library programs and services, call 483-7727, find us on Facebook, or text "ccplinfo" to 66746.
