Facilities Maintenance Manager Retires

FAYETTEVILLE, NC – Al Brunson, Cumberland County’s Facilities Maintenance Manager, is retiring Tuesday, July 31, with 19 years of service to the county.

Brunson joined the county in 1993 after serving 27 years in the U.S. Army. The former paratrooper started out working for the Public Health Department as a processing assistant and then moved to the Family Resource Center in Spring Lake where he was the Facilities Maintenance Coordinator. In 2003, he assumed the responsibility for maintenance of the new Detention Center. He was appointed the Facilities Maintenance Manager for the entire county in 2005.

“We are grateful for Al Brunson’s long service to the citizens of Cumberland County, and we wish him the best as he starts a new chapter,” County Manager James Martin said.
