Volunteer Receives Cumberland Cares Award

FAYETTEVILLE - County Commissioners presented Michael Brown, a volunteer with the Cumberland County Sharpshooters 4-H Club, with the Cumberland Cares Recognition Award at their Oct. 15 meeting.

Brown has volunteered with the club for seven years. During the past year, he also served as the muzzle loader instructor for the North Carolina 4-H Muzzle Loader Team, which competed at the National 4-H Shooting Sports Invitational held June 17-22 in Grand Island, Neb. The team won three national team awards and two individual high-score awards.

The Cumberland Cares award recognizes a Cumberland County individual, group or agency which has made an outstanding contribution toward a better quality of life for the county's citizens.

The 4-H program is the youth education program of North Carolina Cooperative Extension, based at North Carolina State and North Carolina A&T State universities. To learn more about 4-H in Cumberland County, call 910-321-6860 or visit the Cooperative Extension website at www.cumberland.ces.ncsu.edu.
