Cumberland County Fair Friday Hours Extended Until Midnight

FAYETTEVILLE – Hours for the Cumberland County Fair tonight, Sept. 14, have been extended until midnight. Anyone who brings a ticket stub from a high school football game will receive $1 off the $10 admission price. The admission price includes unlimited rides and entertainment.

The last day of the Cumberland County Fair is Sunday, Sept. 16. Gates open every day at 5 p.m. and run until 11 p.m., with the exception of tonight's extended hours until midnight. The Crown Center is at 1960 Coliseum Dr. in Fayetteville. The Exposition Center, where exhibits and animal judging are held, is at 301 E. Mountain Dr.

“We are very excited about the response to the fair with more than 20,000 people attending so far, so we are extending hours Friday, Sept. 14, until midnight,” said Marshall Perry, Crown Center Director of Marketing and Sales. “The Cumberland County Fair offers a safe, family-friendly environment for everyone.”
