Youth 4-H Selling Advance Cumberland County Fair Tickets

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Cooperative Extension 4-H Department is selling advance tickets for the Cumberland County Fair for $2 off the ticket price at the gate. The fair will run Sept. 12-22 with gates opening at 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Advance tickets are $10 for Monday through Thursday and are only good for those days. Advance tickets include coupons for fair vendors worth $47. Regular ticket prices at the gate for Monday through Thursday are $12. Advance or tickets purchased at the gate Monday through Thursday include unlimited carnival rides and entertainment.

Admission tickets Friday through Sunday are $5 at the gate. Carnival ride tickets and wristbands are available separately. Children under 2 years old are admitted for free.

One dollar of every advance ticket sold will go to support the Cumberland County 4-H Youth Development program. Advance tickets will also be available at all Kangaroo convenience stores and at the Crown Coliseum box office.

“The advantage of buying in advance is you can use the tickets Monday through Thursday, get valuable coupons while at the same time supporting our 4-H program,” said Cooperative Extension Director Lisa Childers.

For a complete list of fair activities and attractions, go to www.cumberlandcountyfair.org or call 321-6860. You can also buy tickets at the Cooperative Extension office located at 301 E. Mountain Dr. in the Charlie Rose Agri-Expo Center.
