Cumberland County Emergency Services Now On Facebook

FAYETTEVILLE, NC – Cumberland County Emergency Services is now on Facebook. Members of the public can follow the social media page to receive valuable information about everything from fire safety to weather warnings and emergency alerts. The web address is <http://www.facebook.com/CumberlandCountyNC911>.

“Cumberland County Emergency Services encourages everyone to follow our Facebook page,” said Cumberland County Emergency Management Program Coordinator Gene Booth. “It is a great avenue to keep up on the latest weather, safety and disaster-related information.”

The Emergency Services Facebook page enhances the agency’s outreach to the public, with links to resources such as the CodeRED emergency notification service and National Weather Service warnings.

Cumberland County Government, Cumberland County Public Library & Information Center, Cumberland County Cooperative Extension and the Crown Coliseum also have Facebook pages with photos and valuable public information. The web addresses to the pages are listed below:
