Salmonella Outbreak Over, State Officials Working on Final Report

FAYETTEVILLE, NC – Cumberland County Public Health Director Buck Wilson has declared the Salmonella infection outbreak at the Holiday Inn Bordeaux over because there have been no cases with onset after May 15. The outbreak was first reported on May 14.

The Health Department continues to investigate 103 cases of individuals who experienced symptoms or signs of salmonella infection.

The NC Department of Health and Human Services' Epidemiology Team is writing the final report and once that is completed Cumberland County Health Director Buck Wilson will release it.
