Cumberland Soil and Water District Wins Award for Best Conservation Program

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Soil and Water Conservation District received the award for having the best conservation program at the Area 7 fall meeting held Nov. 19 at the Sampson County Exposition Center in Clinton.

The Outstanding Soil and Water Conservation District award recognizes the district with the best conservation program in Area 7, which includes Bladen, Columbus, Cumberland, Harnett, Hoke, Richmond, Robeson, Sampson and Scotland counties.

“The Cumberland Soil and Water Conservation District staff strives to serve our citizens and we are pleased to be recognized as the Area 7 Outstanding District for 2013,” said District Technician Larry Simpson.

Located in the Charlie Rose Agri-Expo Center at 301 E. Mountain Dr., the Cumberland Soil and Water Conservation District offers free technical assistance to landowners in the county with land management, drainage, wetlands, soils information, best management practices and other land resource problems. Call (910) 484-8479 for more information or go to www.co.cumberland.nc.us/soil\_water.
