

Extension Master Gardener Volunteers win Award

Media Contact: Kenneth Bailey, Extension agent, EMGV Coordinator
910-321-6871 or kenneth\_bailey@ncsu.edu

Date: Dec. 2, 2014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Cumberland County Cooperative Extension Master Gardener Program has been awarded the Mountaire Better Carolina Award by Mountaire Farms for November 2014. The Mountaire Better Carolina Award is a monthly award given to highlight individuals, businesses, organizations and classrooms who go above and beyond to assist others in their community or to protect/improve the environment. Winners of this award are chosen by a Mountaire selection committee from submitted nominations. Each winner of this award receives an engraved crystal trophy and is recognized in the Fayetteville Observer.

The Cumberland County Cooperative Extension Master Gardener Program provides research-based information to home gardeners. For more information, call the Master Gardener hotline at 910-321-6882 Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. or go online to cumberland.ces.ncsu.edu.