July County Programs Available for Viewing

FAYETTEVILLE – The July 2014 episodes of “Cumberland Matters” and “Cumberland Conversations” are posted on the county’s YouTube page at youtube.com/CumberlandCountyNC and will air during July and August on Fayetteville/Cumberland Educational TV (FCETV) Time Warner Cable Channel 5 and 97.3.

On “Cumberland Conversations,” County Manager Amy Cannon and Assistant County Manager Melissa Cardinali give an overview of the FY2015 county budget and highlight some of the budget priorities.

“Cumberland Matters” features the following segments:

- Public Safety – Cumberland County Fire Marshals Bryan Marley and Rodney Ward explain how fire inspections help increase safety for the public and first responders.
- At Your Library – Kelsey Edwards of the Cumberland County Public Library and Information Center promotes the library’s large selection of online resources.
- Extension Today – Cooperative Extension Agent Candy Underwood discusses how to can fruits and vegetables in your own home.
- Cumberland Cares – Dee Taylor of the Cumberland County Community Development Department and William Robinson of Alliance Behavioral Healthcare talk about the Community Homeless Stand Down event and how it will serve the homeless population.
- News and Information – Donna Foster of the Soil and Water Conservation District talks about the district’s annual tree seedling sale.
