June County Programs Available for Viewing

FAYETTEVILLE – The June 2014 episodes of “Cumberland Matters” and “Cumberland Conversations” are posted on the county’s YouTube page at youtube.com/CumberlandCountyNC and will air during the month on Fayetteville/Cumberland Educational TV (FCETV) Time Warner Cable Channel 5 and 97-3 on the digital tier.

On “Cumberland Conversations,” Cape Fear Valley Emergency Medical Services Director Brian Pearce, Department of Public Health Environmental Director Daniel Ortiz and Sheriff’s Office Lt. Robert Dicke offer tips to help citizens stay safe this summer, whether at home, on the roads or outdoors.

“Cumberland Matters” features the following segments:

- Public Safety – Cumberland County Sheriff’s Office Lt. Gary Dukes discusses the Fuller School Resource and Community Policing Center and describes how these programs serve our citizens.
- At Your Library – Public Library and Information Center Associate Sana Moulder offers summer reading and listening suggestions.
- Extension Today – Cooperative Extension is celebrating its 100th anniversary this year. Director Lisa Childers and Extension Advisory Board member Willie Geddie describe how Cooperative Extension has changed and continues to meet the long-term needs of North Carolina.
- Cumberland Cares – The Cape Fear Valley Blood Donor Center’s April Maroschak and Lindsay Anderson explain the importance of community blood drives.
- News and Information – County GIS Coordinator Mary Ann Steinmetz looks at various online mapping applications available through the county’s website.

The two county programs air at the following times on FCETV Channel 5 and 97.3:

Cumberland Matters:

Thursday	7:30 p.m.
Friday	12 p.m.
Saturday	12:30 p.m.
Sunday	12:30 p.m.

Cumberland Conversations:

Tuesday	7 p.m.
Friday	12:30 p.m.
