Teen Wellness Task Force Will Present 'Real Talk' April 2

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Teen Wellness Task Force will present the annual Real Talk event April 2 at 7 p.m. at Pine Forest High School, 525 Andrews Road. The Health Department and Cumberland County Schools are the lead agencies for the task force, which also includes representatives from community agencies interested in teen wellness and teen pregnancy prevention.

Real Talk provides an overview of teen pregnancy in the county, allow attendees to interact with vendors, enjoy food and refreshments, participate in raffle ticket drawings, and hear from local physicians as well as the Teen Prevention Education Program teams from Pine Forest and South View high schools.

The event is free and open to the public. Organizers invite teens and their parents to the event.

For more information, contact Trisha Barfield at 910-433-3705 or e-mail tbarfield@co.cumberland.nc.us.
