May County Programs Available for Viewing

FAYETTEVILLE – The May 2014 episodes of “Cumberland Matters” and “Cumberland Conversations” are available for viewing. The programs are posted on YouTube at www.youtube.com/CumberlandCountyNC and will air during the month on Fayetteville/Cumberland Educational TV (FCETV), Time Warner Cable Channel 5 and 97-3 on the digital tier.

On “Cumberland Conversations,” Cumberland County Community Development Director Sylvia McLean and Community Services Manager Delores Taylor provide an overview of the department and how it serves our citizens through housing, economic development, public services and infrastructure programs.

“Cumberland Matters” features the following segments:

- Public Safety – Safe Kids Cumberland County is promoting the Child Seat Diversion Program that aims to educate parents about proper use of child restraint systems and provides an opportunity to have restraint citations deferred.
- At Your Library – The Cumberland County Public Library and Information Center's Summer Reading Clubs kick off in June and run through Aug. 15.
- Extension Today – A Master Gardener Volunteer offers tips and information about the various turf grasses that grow in our region and explains the services provided by Cooperative Extension.
- News and Information – Citizens have until June 1 to nominate properties for the 6th Annual Community Appearance Awards program.
- Cumberland Cares – The Senior Community Services Employment Program provides part-time employment opportunities for unemployed individuals ages 55 and older.
