FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cumberland County 4-H member Drayton Hancock qualified Oct. 18 to be a member of the North Carolina 4-H Shooting Sports Team that will compete in the national tournament this summer in Nebraska.

Hancock, a Cape Fear High School student and member of the Sharpshooters' 4-H Club, competed at the State 4-H Shooting Sports Tournament held at Millstone 4-H Camp in Ellerbe. He was among 10 youth from across North Carolina who qualified in the muzzleloading discipline.

The state team will compete June 21-26 in Grand Island, Neb., at the 2015 National Shooting Sports Invitational.
