

Youth 4-H Member Represents County

Media Contact: Jessica Drake, Extension agent, 4-H Youth Development
910-321-6867 or jessica_drake@ncsu.edu

Date: Oct. 2, 2014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FAYETTEVILLE, NC - Cumberland County 4-H Youth Volunteer Jenna Shackelford served as a Youth Voice Delegate for Cumberland County at the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners Conference held Aug. 14-17 in Buncombe County.

Shackelford was recognized by the Board of Commissioners at their regular meeting Sept. 15 in the Courthouse.

Shackelford recently graduated with honors from her homeschool, Lake Clair Academy. She has been active in 4-H for the past 11 years and has participated in livestock showing, gun safety and public speaking. She has also learned about local and state government through Citizenship Focus. She currently attends Fayetteville Technical Community College.

Empowering People • Providing Solutions