Bordeaux Branch Library Reopens Wednesday, April 8

FAYETTEVILLE – Bordeaux Branch Library at 3711 Village Drive will reopen on Wednesday, April 8, after being closed for repairs resulting from some type of flammable material being placed in the facility's book drop on April 4.

The investigation by the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office into the incident is ongoing.

Damage to the facility was not extensive and repairs and cleaning are being conducted by County employees. Damage to library materials from water, fire and smoke is estimated at under $7,000, said Library Director Jody Risacher.

The library will resume normal hours on Wednesday; however, all programming and meeting room reservations have been canceled for the week. The book drop remains closed for further repairs. Materials may be returned after operating hours to any of the library's other seven locations. The closest branch to Bordeaux is Headquarters Library at 300 Maiden Lane.
