Teen Wellness Task Force Will Present ‘Real Talk’ May 7

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Teen Wellness Task Force will present the 3rd annual Real Talk event May 7 at 6 p.m. at South View High School, 4184 Elk Rd., Hope Mills. The event is free and open to the public. Teens and their parents are invited.

Real Talk provides an overview of teen pregnancy in the county, allowing attendees to interact with vendors, enjoy food and refreshments, participate in raffle ticket drawings and hear from the Teen Prevention Education Program teams from Pine Forest and South View high schools.

The Health Department is the lead agency for the Teen Wellness Task Force, which includes Cumberland County Schools and other community partners.

For more information, contact Trisha Barfield at 910-433-3705 or tbarfield@co.cumberland.nc.us.
