Register of Deeds Office Will Donate Book Bags Aug. 18

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Register of Deeds office will donate 650 book bags for homeless children to Cumberland County Schools and the Fayetteville Police Department Tuesday, Aug. 18, at 9 a.m. at the Register of Deeds office in the Courthouse, 117 Dick St.

Register of Deeds staff collected donated school supplies and packed the book bags as part of the annual school supply drive. Schools Superintendent Dr. Frank Till, Schools Social Work Services Coordinator Pamela Story, Fayetteville Police Chief Harold Medlock and Officer Stacy Sanders will accept the book bags.

“Through the assistance of the Fayetteville Regional Association of Realtors and many other businesses and individuals, this year’s project is a success,” said Register of Deeds Lee Warren. “We want to thank the many businesses, civic groups and our citizens for continuing to help these children receive the necessary school supplies and toiletries that they will need to help them succeed in school.”
