Animal Control Seeks Public's Help in Cruelty Case

FAYETTEVILLE – Cumberland County Animal Control was called on Jan. 2 to investigate the possible intentional drowning of an eight-month-old black lab and shepherd mixed breed dog. The animal's body was found by a private citizen in McFayden Pond off McFayden Road in the Morganton Road area.

Anyone with information about this case is asked to contact Lt. Elaine Smith, Enforcement Supervisor with Cumberland County Animal Control, at 910-321-6829 or 910-321-6852. Information may also be emailed to ccac@co.cumberland.nc.us.

Animal Control is withholding additional details in the case to assist the department in its investigation.
