Register of Deeds Employee Receives Statewide Award

FAYETTEVILLE – Cumberland County Register of Deeds Deputy Senior Assistant Lisa Scales received the Charles W. Moore Award from the North Carolina Association Registers of Deeds (NCARD) at the association's 63rd annual conference in Concord, N.C., earlier this month.

The Charles W. Moore Award is given annually to a register of deeds assistant or deputy in recognition for outstanding service to the association. Scales has served in the Cumberland County Register of Deeds office for 30 years. Scales worked as a contractor, scanning microfilm for the Register of Deeds, in 1985 and joined the office as an employee in 1986. She earned her N.C. Association of Registers of Deeds certification in 1997 through the School of Government at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She was appointed Assistant Register of Deeds in 1998 and earned her advanced certification in 2009. Register of Deeds J. Lee Warren Jr. appointed Scales Deputy Senior Assistant in 2014.

Scales has served on the NCARD Certification Committee for five years. She was a planner for the association's annual conference held in Fayetteville in 2006 and has coordinated and planned numerous workshops for NCARD's District V, which includes Cumberland and 12 other counties. She is a member of the International Association of Clerks, Recorders, Elected Officials and Treasurers and has also served on the Military Spouses Association. Scales also serves as chair of the Judson/Vander Voting Precinct. Since 2009, Scales has co-chaired a community-wide effort to supply over 800 book bags with school supplies to homeless children as a part of the project conducted through the Register of Deeds Office.

Scales and her husband, Cumberland County Sheriff's Lt. Daryl Scales, have a son, Jamar. They are members of Covenant Love Church.
