FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Spring into gardening with the Cumberland County Cooperative Extension Master Gardener Volunteer spring plant sale, Saturday, April 30, beginning at 9 a.m. No early birds please. The plant sale will be held on the front lawn of the Cooperative Extension office, 301 E. Mountain Dr., Fayetteville.

Selections will include plants grown locally by the Extension Master Gardener Volunteers, plants to attract birds, bees, and butterflies, drought tolerant plants, and plants to please any gardener.

Proceeds from the plant sale are used to support the following horticulture scholarships, Cape Fear Botanical Garden, Extension Master Gardener Demonstration Garden, Master Gardener educational programs in schools, clubs, and libraries, Wounded Warrior Tranquility Garden at Womack Army Medical Center and the Second Harvest Food Bank Garden.

Cash, checks, and major credit or bank cards will be accepted.

For additional information contact the Extension Master Gardeners at 910-321-6882, Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

For accommodations for persons with disabilities, contact Lisa Childers at 910.321.6880, no later than five business days before the event.
