Cumberland Outstanding Board of Health of the Year

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Board of Health was named Outstanding Board of Health of the year by the Association of North Carolina Boards of Health. The award, which recognizes leadership in public health accomplishments, was presented at the State Health Director’s Conference in Raleigh in January.

Chris Frank, chairman of the 2015 Board of Health, accepted the award on behalf of the board. Members of the award-winning board are Dr. Vikki Andrews, Dr. Heather Burkhardt, Commissioner Jeannette Council, Dr. Carl Creech, David Greyshock, Dr. Oliver Hodge, Dr. William Philbrick, Pamela Pollock, Dr. Sanjay Shah and Barbara Stelly (Vice Chair).

During 2015, the Cumberland County Board of Health focused on areas in legislative/government, collaborations/partnerships, innovation, health department activities and volunteer efforts to support public health and create a healthier community.
