Cumberland County Seeks Bond Counsel

FAYETTEVILLE – Cumberland County is requesting proposals from law firms with experience in public finance to serve as County Bond Counsel.

The bond counsel will be directly responsible for providing an objective legal opinion to the County with respect to the authorization and issuance of debt obligations and whether interest paid is tax-exempt under federal and state laws and regulations. Other tasks are outlined in the Request for Proposals and include working directly with all parties to develop the details of a financing structure that meets the County's needs.

The proposal submission deadline is 3 p.m. on July 13. The Request for Proposals is posted on the County's web site under the following link at co.cumberland.nc.us/finance/bid\_opportunities.aspx.

The award notification is scheduled for Aug. 9. For more information, please email cstlouis@co.cumberland.nc.us or call 910-678-7753.
