Low Income Energy Assistance Available Through March 31

FAYETTEVILLE – The Salvation Army is still accepting applications for the North Carolina Low Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP) to help qualified families with their heating costs. Citizens may apply 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, at the Salvation Army office at 1047 Southern Ave. Applications will be accepted through March 31, or until funds are exhausted.

The federally-funded program provides a one-time vendor payment to help eligible households pay their heating bills. Household income must not exceed 130 percent of the poverty level. All households must apply for LIEAP; there are no automatic approvals.

The Salvation Army manages the program for the Department of Social Services and all applications must go to the Salvation Army's office at 1047 Southern Ave. For more information, contact the DSS LIEAP message line at 910-677-2821 or the Salvation Army at 910-307-0359.
