Senior Health Fair May 18 at DSS

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Department of Social Services will host the 11th annual Senior Health Fair May 18 from 8:30 a.m. until 12 p.m. in the first floor conference rooms of the DSS building at 1225 Ramsey St.

The Senior Health Fair is for people in the community age 50 and older and their caregivers. The fair will be held in observance of Older Americans Month, which is celebrated in May. This year's theme is "Blaze a Trail." There will be vendors present with information about resources and services available for senior citizens in the community. There will also be entertainment, music, snacks and door prizes.
