Cumberland County Fair Sept. 9 – 18 at Crown Complex

FAYETTEVILLE – The Cumberland County Fair begins today at 5 p.m. and runs through Sept. 18 at the Crown Complex. The fair opens at 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. The annual event celebrates the county's agricultural heritage and combines family fun and entertainment with exciting rides and fair food.

Admission to the fair today is free. Ticket prices Saturday through Sept. 18 are $7. Children under 2 years-old get in free. Ride tickets and wristbands are sold separately. An unlimited ride wristband is $20 and individual ride tickets are also available for purchase.

Tickets may be purchased online at CapeFearTix.com, by phone at 1-888-257-6208 or in person at the Crown Box Office.

The exhibit hall will feature commercial, educational and informational booths, as well as agricultural exhibits. Events happening all week include an interactive petting farm; Pirates of the Colombian Caribbean highwire show, racing pigs, toddler driving school, Family and Consumer Sciences education; home, craft and agricultural exhibits; and a wide range of performances on the entertainment stage. A complete list of events and more information is available at cumberlandcountyfair.org.
