Job Fair Set for Sept. 21 at Headquarters Library

Meet employers and receive help with résumés, online job searching and more

Cumberland County Public Library & Information Center hosts a job fair on Sept. 21 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Headquarters Library, 300 Maiden Lane. Professions represented include agribusiness & industry, education, banking, manufacturing, sales, law enforcement, retail services, staffing, shipping and delivery services, healthcare, hospital staffing, technology and government agencies. Educational institutions represented include Campbell University, Fayetteville State University and Troy University. The following programs are offered in conjunction with the job fair:

Résumé & Interviewing Tips

Professional Human Resource Managers will review résumés and provide feedback on how to improve. Interviewing tip seminars will begin every hour on the hour.

Build Your Résumé

Librarians will be available during the job fair to assist job seekers with completing online applications, creating or revising résumés and online job searching.

Developing Career Soft Skills

Learn how to avoid conflict in the workplace.

21st Century Job Searching

Learn about tools that can help and how traditional techniques may actually slow down your search.

Career Readiness Certificate Training

Show employers that you have the skills to get the job done. This learn-at-your-own-pace certificate program is recognized by local employers and having it demonstrates your commitment to making a positive impact wherever you choose to be employed.

In addition, Headquarters Library (300 Maiden Lane) is offering a Vocational Job Fair on Oct. 6 at 5:30 p.m. for those 16-24 years of age. This is an ideal time to receive tips for filling out online job applications, meet representatives from businesses that are currently hiring, explore careers for your future, meet individuals from organizations who can help you get a job, work on your résumé and practice your interview skills.
