Library Hosts Banned Books Film Festival

Watch the movie based on the banned book Sept. 26 - Oct. 1

Banned Books Week is a national event celebrating the importance of reading and the freedom of the First Amendment. First launched in 1982, it was held in response to an increase in the number of books challenged by schools, libraries and bookstores. Watch the films based on such books during the week of Sept. 26 - Oct. 1.
