Date: Feb. 6, 2017

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cumberland County Cooperative Extension will offer two Better Living Series Workshops in February.

Both workshops will be offered at the Cooperative Extension Agriculture Center, 301 E. Mountain Dr., Fayetteville. Workshop pre-registration and class registration fees for each workshop are due two days before the workshop.

"Meet the Pollinators" will be held Feb. 14 from 12 - 1:30 p.m. Explore the importance of plant pollinating insects for our food production and how these unsung heroes of agriculture can be protected. The $5 registration fee is due by Thursday.

"Making Garden Dishes" will be offered on Feb. 28 from 12 - 1:30 p.m. The workshop will teach attendees how to create beautiful and easy to maintain dish gardens using low maintenance succulent plans and cacti. Participants will make a small dish garden during the workshop. The $20 fee is due on or before Feb. 23.

Visit the Cumberland County Cooperative Extension website at cumberland.ces.ncsu.edu for a complete list of the 2017 Better Living workshops or for registration information. You may also contact Susan Johnson at (910) 321-6405 for additional information.

For accommodations for persons with disabilities, contact Lisa Childers at 910.321.6880, no later than five business days before the event.
