

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Feb. 23, 2017

Cooperative Extension
Contact: Jessica Drake
Extension Agent for 4-H Youth Development
Telephone: 910-321-6867
E-mail: jessica_drake@ncsu.edu

Cumberland County 4-H Volunteer Receives District Award

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. – Debby Lewis received the District Volunteer Award at the 4-H Volunteer Leaders Conference Banquet Feb. 4 in Durham. Lewis volunteers with Cumberland County's 4-H program. She was honored at the Cumberland County Livestock Association annual meeting on Feb. 10 at Cooperative Extension.

Lewis, who is from the Gray's Creek area, is a volunteer with the South Central 4-H District and is a member of the Cumberland County 4-H Foundation Board. During her time as board president, she helped obtain funding and establish an endowment to sustain the program. Lewis also serves on the Cumberland County Livestock Association Board and the Cumberland County Fair Advisory Committee. She contributes over 100 volunteer hours to the Cumberland County Fair each year, helping with livestock, 4-H and Family and Consumer Sciences exhibits.

Debby Lewis, a volunteer with the South Central 4-H District, accepted the District Volunteer Award at the Volunteer Leaders Conference Banquet in Durham Feb. 4. Pictured from left are N.C. State Cooperative Extension Director Dr. Richard Bonanno, Lewis, and State Program Leader for 4-H and Family and Consumer Sciences Dr. Mike Yoder.

###