Job Fair Runs 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. March 21 at Crown Expo

FAYETTEVILLE – Job seekers are invited to the annual “March to Work” Job Fair on March 21 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Crown Expo Center, 1960 Coliseum Dr., Fayetteville.

The Cumberland County Department of Social Services is partnering with the Cumberland County Public Library and Information Center, City of Fayetteville, Fayetteville Technical Community College, Public Works Commission, NC Works Career Center, Beasley Media Group, Copiers Plus, Hardee’s and McDonald’s to present the award-winning “March to Work” Job Fair. The event is free and open to the public.

The job fair will also feature the award-winning Internet Job Café hosted by the Cumberland County Public Library to help job seekers submit online job applications during the event. The Cumberland County NC Works Career Center will provide staff and services to help job seekers with resume review, NC Works registration, veterans services and career training services and information.

Free van transportation will be provided between 8:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. with pickups about every 15 minutes at the Hillsboro Street entrance of DSS and the Job Link/Division of Workforce Solutions Office at 414 Ray Ave. The last trip from the Crown Expo Center will depart at 3 p.m. The City of Fayetteville Transit Department will provide vans to pick up job seekers from Westover Recreation Center, 267 Bonanza Dr., and Cliffdale Branch Library, 6882 Cliffdale Rd.

Job seekers are advised to dress professionally; bring plenty of resumes and black ink pens; and be prepared for short, on-the-spot interviews with potential employers.
