Employers Invited To Participate In March 21 Job Fair

FAYETTEVILLE – Employers are invited to participate in the upcoming Cumberland County Department of Social Services March to Work Job Fair featuring the Internet Job Café and N.C. Works Career Center on March 21 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Crown Expo Center, 1960 Coliseum Dr., in Fayetteville. The annual job fair attracts over 2,000 job seekers and approximately 100 employers.

The job fair provides companies with a great opportunity to find new employees. Job readiness experts will be available to review resumes for job seekers. The award-winning Internet Job Café allows job seekers to submit online applications at the event.

To reserve a booth at the March to Work Job Fair, call or email Toni Wright-Harris at 910-677-2151 or AnntonietteWright-Harris@ccdssnc.com or Robert Relyea at 910-677-2222 or robertrelyea@ccdssnc.com by March 10. Booth space and wireless Internet access are free. If a booth requires electrical access, there will be a $25 fee payable to the Crown Coliseum. Vendors who need electrical access should notify DSS when reserving a booth.
