FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cumberland County Cooperative Extension will host a solar energy informational workshop on Jan. 18 from 8 to 9:30 a.m. in the Agriculture Center, located at 301 East Mountain Drive, Fayetteville. Dr. Herbert Eckerlin of the N. C. State University Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering and Dr. Ron Heiniger of the NCSU Department of Crop Science, will discuss the pros and cons of solar energy and the impact of solar panel installation on agricultural land.

Light morning refreshments will be provided. Please RSVP to Susan Johnson at 910-321-6405 or susan_johnson@ncsu.edu by Jan. 13.

For accommodations for persons with disabilities, contact Susan Johnson at 910.321.6405, no later than five business days before the event.
