Public Invited To Review Community Development Annual Action Plan

FAYETTEVILLE – The 2017 Cumberland County Community Development Annual Action Plan will be available for public review and comment at 10 locations in the county from March 15 through April 13. Following the review period, a public hearing will be held at the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners meeting April 18 at 6:45 p.m. in Room 118 of the Courthouse. The draft plan will also be available on Community Development's website at co.cumberland.nc.us/community_dev.aspx.

The Annual Action Plan will be available at the following locations during regular business hours:

- Cumberland County Community Development, 707 Executive Place
- East Regional Branch Library, 4809 Clinton Rd.
- Falcon Town Hall, 7156 Southwest St., Falcon
- Godwin Town Hall, 4924 Markham St., Godwin
- Hope Mills Branch Library, 3411 Golfview Rd., Hope Mills
- Linden Town Hall, 9456 Academy St., Linden
- North Regional Branch Library, 855 McArthur Rd., Fayetteville
- Spring Lake Branch Library, 101 Laketree Blvd., Spring Lake
- Stedman Town Hall, 5110 Front St., Stedman
- Wade Town Hall, 7128 Main St., U.S. Highway 301 N., Wade

Cumberland County is required to prepare and submit a one-year community development action plan to address the priority needs of affordable, safe, decent housing to low-moderate income residents, homeless people or those at risk of homelessness and the special needs population. The plan is a countywide strategic planning process including the input of governmental, nonprofit, business, members of the public and other community partners.
