Community Development Schedules Public Meetings in January

FAYETTEVILLE, NC – Cumberland County Community Development will hold a series of public meetings to help members of the public learn firsthand about various programs, upcoming projects and community activities offered through Community Development. The meetings will also give citizens a chance to provide feedback on community needs.

The meetings are scheduled for the following dates and locations:

- Jan. 22, 6:30 p.m., Spring Lake Branch Library, 101 Laketree Blvd.
- Jan. 24, 6:30 p.m., East Regional Branch Library, 4809 Clinton Rd.
- Jan. 29, 6:30 p.m., Hope Mills Branch Library, 3411 Golfview Rd.

The meetings will cover topics including first-time homebuyer assistance, home repair assistance, transitional housing for the homeless and fair housing issues. Community Development's goal is to preserve and expand the supply of safe, affordable and decent housing in Cumberland County.
