March County Programs Available for Viewing

FAYETTEVILLE – The March 2014 episodes of “Cumberland Matters” and “Cumberland Conversations” are available for viewing on television and online. The programs are posted on the county’s YouTube page at www.youtube.com/CumberlandCountyNC and on Fayetteville/Cumberland Educational TV (FCETV), Time Warner Cable Channel 5 and 97-3 on the digital tier.

The March episode of “Cumberland Matters” features the following segments:

- News and Information – Robert Relyea of the Department of Social Services tells how the annual “March to Work” Job Fair on March 27 at the Crown Expo Center will bring job seekers in contact with more than 100 potential employers.
- Extension Today – Cumberland County Cooperative Extension’s Amanda Upshaw and Kimberly McCabe of the Tolson Youth Activities Center on Fort Bragg explain how the military 4-H Youth Program offers a variety of opportunities and a sense of stability to children and youth.
- At Your Library – Librarian Kelsey Edwards and Library Associate Kelly Lindsay talk about “Divergent Cultures: The Middle East in Literature,” the upcoming reading and discussion series at the Cumberland County Public Library and Information Center.
- Cumberland Cares – Sakiyna Ragland of Fayetteville Technical Community College and Dolly Huffman Clayton of the Health Department preview the April 2 “Real Talk” event for teens and their parents focusing on teen wellness.

On “Cumberland Conversations,” Human Resources Consultants Laura Blackley and John Holmes describe how Cumberland County Government recruits, hires, trains and retains employees who are vital to the county’s mission of providing quality services to citizens.

Visit the Fayetteville/Cumberland Educational Television website <http://www.fcetv.org> for the broadcast schedule.
