Gathering for Election Results Moves to Crown Ballroom

FAYETTEVILLE – After the polls close at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 8, the public is invited to view the General Election results for Cumberland County precincts in the Crown Complex Ballroom.

The unofficial results from the State Board of Elections website will be projected on the large screens in the room and candidates, supporters, media outlets and residents are welcome to gather together to await the numbers.

Voters can also track election results by visiting co.cumberland.nc.us/elections.aspx. Look for the “November 2016 Elections Results” link.

The polls will open Tuesday at 6:30 a.m. and close at 7:30 p.m. To find information about your precinct, use the County’s Polling Place Finder located on the GIS Maps & Apps page - http://www.co.cumberland.nc.us/is_technology/gis.aspx

The ESPN Radio Upper Deck located just outside the ballroom will be open during the election results event. The restaurant will open at 5:30 p.m. Individuals or groups who wish to place an advance order may contact Brian Gaskill at 910-486-7700 ext. 128 or brian.gaskill@centerplate.com. The menu for the ESPN Radio Upper Deck is located here: http://www.crowncomplexnc.com/assets/img/Event-Menu_full-page2016-105e1583a0.jpg

Attendees should park in the Crown Complex’s East lot off East Mountain Drive and enter through the Mid-point entrance located mid-way between the Expo and the East Coliseum entrances. Patrons parking in the East Mountain lot will follow the sidewalk from the lot toward the coliseum and enter the first entrance, which is the Mid-point.
