Appearance Commission Awards Program Seeks Nominations

(Fayetteville, N.C.) — The City-County Joint Appearance Commission is seeking nominations for its 2017 Appearance Awards program. Nominations must be submitted by June 1, 2017. The purpose of this program is to recognize properties in Cumberland County that are improving the appearance of our community.

After reviewing all properties that are nominated, the Commission will recognize the best properties during the summer of 2017 at an awards ceremony.

Nominations are invited in the following award categories:

- Best Existing Single-Family Residential Property
- Best New Single-Family Residential Property
- Best Existing Multi-Family Residential Property
- Best New Multi-Family Residential Property
- Best Existing Non-Residential Property
- Best New Non-Residential Property
- Best Revitalization of a Residential Property
- Best Revitalization of a Non-Residential Property
- Best Housing Development or Neighborhood
- Best Residential Landscaping Project
- Best Non-Residential Landscaping Project
- Best Green Project
- Best Restoration of a Historical Residential Property
- Best Restoration of a Historical Non-Residential Property
- Best Neighborhood Entrance/Community Gateway

The City-County Joint Appearance Commission is made up of members from Cumberland County and the eight towns in Cumberland County, as well as Fayetteville. In 2008-2009, the Commission started the Community Appearance Awards Program.
